

Side Chair

Medium

Mahogany, and unidentified softwood blocks

Description

An open back side chair with a bow shaped crest rail that features a carved foliate central motif and carved foliate ears. A symmetrical interlaced splat combines pierced and scrolling elements above a quatrefoil near its base. The slip seat sits on plain rails with molded upper edges. Four square or Marlboro legs are braced with plain rectangular stretchers in an "H" assembly with the addition of a single rear stretcher. The inner corners of the rear legs are chamfered.
