Teapot

Medium

Porcelain

Description

A teapot with separate lid in a bulbous body shape. The teapot features an intertwined double handle and a short curved and tapered spout. A band of finely molded basketweave pattern decorates the shoulders. On either side of the vessel is a crest consisting of a blue oval cartouche with three white flowers and a single gilt chevron, above the motto "IN SUBLIME." Above the cartouche is depicted a crowned eagle with outstretched wings. At the handle jointure is a molded and painted acorn and oak leaf in blue with gilt highlights. The flat lid has a simple gilded button knob above a finely molded basketweave banding.
