

Duster Coat

Medium

Linen, cotton

Description

A woman's traveling coat known as a duster, made of lightweight brown linen. The coat includes a button front closure, small pointed flat collar, long sleeves, and large gathered pockets at both hips. The coat is highlighted with brown cotton piping, applied along the front closure edges, collar, cuffs, and along the shaped princess back seams. The piping is used additionally in decorative pointed tab panels on the cuffs, pockets, and down the back vent.
