Silk, silk crepe

Description

A woman's three-piece day dress, of thin silk printed with a bold black geometric pattern on off-white. A narrow pleated printed silk drop-waisted skirt is sewn to a plain off white silk sleeveless bodice, with narrow printed silk shoulder straps. An overblouse of printed silk slips over the wearer's head, ending at the waist with a wide waistband with a large decorative bow over the left hip, a deep V neckline, and long sleeves ending in simple white cotton cuffs with snap closure. The outfit is completed by a sheer off-white crepe rectangular scarf, with wide 3 inch borders of the black printed silk.
