

Quilted Hood

Medium

Silk, silk ribbon, wool batting

Description

A woman's quilted hood, with a lightweight pale blue silk in a tiny spotted weave pattern. The hood is loose fitting, with a long bavolet. The hood is lined with plain woven oyster white silk, with a portion of the lining folded back to the outside of the hood, framing the wearer's face. The hood fastens with two silk thread loops and woven death's head buttons (one is now missing) as well as wide pale blue silk ribbon chin ties. The entire hood is hand sewn, and includes a thin batting, possibly wool or cotton.
