Description

A Flying Geese pattern quilt, comprised of seven vertical rows of various cotton prints, alternating with vertical bands of green and lavender picotage print. The quilt backing is a printed "seaweed" motif cotton, with the narrow straight grain binding of the same. The quilting is hand sewn following the triangular pieced scraps. The fabrics range from mid-century to later 19th century cotton prints in browns, pinks, blues, greens, tans, reds, and whites.
