Description

A traveling carpet bag of boldly figured red, ochre yellow, brown, and off white wool ingrain style carpeting on a jute and wool base. The tall bag has an embossed leather rectangular base panel and a covered hinged steel upper open/close frame around the upper portion. The interior of the bag is lined with linen and cotton and includes a side pocket. The bag retains one of its original brown leather handstitched handles, although the handle has detached. The bag also includes a pressed steel lock plate, engraved with "Charles L. Hendrickson / Philada."
