Description

Three-quarter length portrait of an older male facing left, with a full face, deep blue-green eyes, graying brown hair worn long in the back and brushed forward, and curly sideburns. He wears a black coat with square-cut notched collar, a black vest, a white shirt, and a plain white stock tied in a bow in front. The subject's right hand is tucked into his coat front, with only the thumb visible. The plain background is mottled tones of dull reddish brown.

Mounted on wood stretchers, and lined with a newspaper sheet from the Trenton Federalist dated 15 January 1821.
