View of the Walker House

Primary Maker

Henry Thomas Gulick

Medium

Oil on masonite

Description

Landscape view of a white-painted house with red shutters and a high pitched roof. A gable end with centered entrance faces the street. A single chimney abuts an extension of the structure on the long side wall of eight bays. Foundation plantings include green bushes and flowering plants. Two evergreen trees flank the front of the house, and a large tree appears on the left side of the composition. Under it are more flowering bushes. A roadway occupies the lower right corner of the painting. A pathway runs along the side of the house. The sky is blue with many white and gray clouds.
