Description

View of a long one story blacksmith shop painted white, with a red painted double door, red painted single door, two small red painted windows with closed shutters, and one double window with sash painted red. Two sky lights appear in the brown wood shingled roof. The foreground contains a line of low growing bushes in the right center, and another cluster in the lower left. Flowering plants grow against the left hand portion of the structure. Trees and a telephone pole form the background behind the shop. The sky is mottled blue.
