Trade Sign - Straight Razor

Primary Maker

Albert L. Silberstein

Medium

Pine

Description

An advertising sign made of pine that resembles a folding straight razor. The handle and blade are separate pieces pinned together with a dowel. The blade, painted gray, swings out of the hollow part of the handle, which is painted black. A stenciled griffin near the handle connection point is flanked by the words "Trade" and "Mark." The blade bears the name "Carbo-Magnetic" surrounded by electric bolts. Underneath is the inscription, "Trade Mark / Reg. U. S. Pat. Off."
